FRENCH ATTACK GERMANS ALONG THE WEST FRONT

Berlin, May 20. —Repeated French attacks against newly conquered German positions along the Haucourt-Esnes road, northwest of Verdun, have been smashed, the war office declared today. In the Argonne forest, German soldiers plunged through to the French second line trenches, taking prisoners.

German aviators successfully attacked enemy ships off the coast of Flanders, and hurled shells on Dunkirk aerodomes and railroad depots.

at Dixmude, Poperinghe, Amiens, Chalons, St. Pol and Sulpes.

Reasons.

The stingiest man in the world signed for divorce because his wife was wasteful and extravagant.

"Will you give the court some specific instances?" asked the lawyer.

"Well, one day she goes and buys three toothbrushes, one for herself and one for each of the kids. And the worst of it was we already had one good one."—Michigan Gargoyle.

BELIEVE FALL OF VERDUN CERTAIN

Berlin, May 20.—Germans regard the fall of Verdun as certain. They do not believe, however, that its surrender will result in a collapse of the allies.

The German lines are drawing closer around the fortress today. It is understood here that the defense centering on Hill 304 and Dead Man's hill will soon be in German hands.

The Germans hold that by constant hammering at the French, with Italy and the British and Russians being firmly checked, they are coming nearer to victory every day.

NEW CAMPAIGN ON BELGIAN FRONT

London, May 20.—German troops are preparing for a tremendous offensive on the Belgian front, according to despatches from Holland today.

For three days there has been a heavy movement of men and ammunition toward the firing line. Big guns are reported concentrated in massed batteries from the sea coast to Ypres. Teuton air scouts are most active over the scene of the expected battle. It is considered a possibility that the Germans may renew their efforts to smash through to Calais.

America's Appalling Fire Loss.

Every man, woman and child in the United States pays $3 a year for fire waste. If on a certain day of the year a government official should go to the average family of five persons and present a bill for $15 as the annual fire tax of the family, there would be a universal protest against the tax and against the carelessness which makes possible a yearly fire waste of $250,000,000 in this country. Big manufacturers and big merchants know that the fire expense to which they are subjected is a drain on all the people, but because it is indirect the average person is not conscious he is paying a tax. Let the masses once realize that every time they buy a hat, a pair of shoes or a suit of clothes or anything which goes through the regular channels of industry, production, distribution and exchange, they are paying a part of the country's enormous fire tax, and fire prevention would become the order of the day.—Leslie's.

The Duck.

A little schoolgirl in Michigan has written the following essay on the duck:

"The duck is a low heavy set bird. He is a mighty poor singer having a coarse voice caused by getting so many frogs in his neck and he likes the water and carries a toy balloon in his stomach to keep from sinking the Duck has only two legs and they are set so far back on his running gears by nature that they come pretty near missing his body some ducks when they get big curbs on their tails are called drakes and don't have to set or hatch but just loaf and go swimming and eat everything in sight if I were to be a duck I would rather be a drake they have a wide bill like they use it for a spade they walk like a drunk man they bounce and bump about from side to side if you scare them they will flap their wings and try to make a pass at singing."—Detroit Journal.

WILL SPEAK ON PROPOSED BILL

Dr. G. L. Tufts, of Portland, was in the city recently in behalf of a one-day-of-rest-in-seven bill, to be submitted to the voters at the November election. He will return to speak on the subject on Sunday, May 28, at the Presbyterian church, in the morning, and at a union mass meeting at night in the Methodist church.

Dr. Tufts, who organized the Anti-Saloon League of Oregon, is now state superintendent of the Weekly Rest Day League. The bill which the league is promoting, said Mr. Tufts, provides for the closing on Sunday of all unnecessary business and labor. This will give the proprietor as well as the employe a day of rest. Then the continuous, or seven-day per week industries, are to allow their employes twenty-four consecutive hours of rest each week. In this class are such industries as hotels, restaurants, transportation lines, telephone and telegraph service, sugar beet plants, cheese factories, daily newspapers, and all industries which must be kept in daily operation.

In the six-day class are groceries, bakeries, barber and butcher shops, mercantile stores in general, except the sale of drugs and medicines, milk and daily newspapers. Also all unnecessary work in mills, mines, factories, work shops, logging and construction camps and on farms. Jews and Seventh Day Adventists may choose either Saturday or Sunday as their rest day. The bill does not apply to private work which is not done for gain or wages.

Pinched Him Financially.

An esteemed citizen went into a shoe store in a metropolitan town and asked to see some leather goods. Another minute an obliging salesman was hauling out some boxes.

"That's a nice looking shoe," remarked the customer as the salesman pushed his foot into a shiny right and started to lace it. "What is the price?" "This pair is $8," responded the salesman as he finished the lacing and ran his hand across the vamp. "Does it pinch you any?"

"Well, I should say that it does!" was the prompt rejoinder of the customer. "Give me something about $5 cheaper."—Kansas City Star.

Sincere Regret.

A seedy looking individual in a West street saloon turned from the free lunch counter, where he had been helping himself most generously, and said to the barkeeper:

"Friend, can you trust me for a glass of beer till tomorrow?"

"No," said the barkeep.

"I am sorry to hear that," said the seedy one. "It seems kinder mean to eat the amount of free lunch I have and then not buy nothin'."—New York Globe.
